HKCA Conference Grant for CSM 2011 - Extra 50% Registration Fees Concession for Trainees

As an added incentive for trainees to submit their projects for presentation during the CSM2011, the HKCA Council resolved to extend an extra 50% registration fees concession. To reiterate a few pertinent points:

- The deadline for submission of their abstracts for presentation is 21 February 2011 (Monday)
- Registration for the meeting is mandatory before abstracts can be presented at the meeting
- The applicants should be getting a definite reply from the Scientific Convener of the CSM2011 by early March 2011 if their abstracts are accepted for presentation
- The early bird registration deadline stands at 18 March 2011
- All trainees for FHKCA / FHKCA(IC) / Dip Pain Mgt(HKCA) are eligible
- Trainees are advised to go with the Full Registration paying 50% of HK$3,350, that is HK$1,675

It is encouraging that many positive feedbacks have been received. More social events will be organized for our fellows and members in the future. Your suggestions are also very welcomed.

Updates on Combined Scientific Meeting 2011

Combined Scientific Meeting of the Australian and New Zealand College of Anaesthetists, the Faculty of Pain Medicine and the Hong Kong College of Anaesthesiologists (CSM 2011) will offer a very good experience and networking opportunity to discuss the current topics in Anaesthesia, Pain Medicine and Intensive Care. The programme includes lectures of invited international and regional speakers, practical workshops and problem based learning discussions. An exhibition will also be held concurrently to show you the latest products and services offered by the Health Care Industry.

- Deadline for Abstract Submission is extended to 21 February 2011

Authors can still submit your abstracts by the extended deadline of 21 February 2011. More information can be found in the meeting website www.csm2011.com.

- Scientific Programme Updates

This is a new lunchtime session sponsored by Baxter Healthcare on 16 May 2011.
