

Hong Kong College of Anaesthesiologists

Report on Survey of Service Programmes 2008

The survey

- 509 postal surveys send out
- 176 returned with respond rate 34.5%
- 14 were unable to analyze due to inappropriate scoring and were excluded
- 162 surveys were analyzed

Survey Result

The service programmes surveyed are ranked in accordance with the popularity together with their mean ranking score as below (The smaller the score, the more desirable of the programme):

- Establishment of web-based CME/CPD program – 3.42
- ASA refresher course lectures with option of electronic or hard copy – 3.69
- Subscription of (limited) on-line journals – 4.16
- Discount subscription fee for Annual Scientific Meeting – 4.57
- Organizing workshops for CPD/M&M/QA twice per year – 4.58
- Establishment of scholarship for trainees/fellows' overseas training – 4.87
- Discount course fee for simulator courses at Institute of Clinical Simulation – 5.11
- Establishment of research grant – 6.41
- Establishment of library at the office of HKCA – 7.27

The top 3 most desired programs

Result displaced – number of respondents (percentage):

- Web-based CME/CPD program – 34 (21%)
- Subscription of on-line journals – 34 (21%)
- ASA refresher course – 32 (19.8%)

The 3 least desired programs

Result displaced – number of respondents (percentage):

- Library – 73 (45%)
- Research grant – 39 (24%)
- Discount on ASM – 24 (14.8%)